Questões 01–05

READ THE TEXT BELOW.

The first week at a military school is demanding. Cadets wake up at 5:30 a.m., organize their rooms, and attend classes in the morning. In the afternoon, they train outdoors and review notes with classmates. Many students feel tired at first, but they soon learn that discipline makes the routine easier. The goal is not only to pass exams, but also to build responsibility.

01. Choose the correct option that best answers the question below.

"The main idea of the text is that military school:"

- A) is only about physical exercises.
- B) has a demanding routine that develops discipline and responsibility.
- C) does not require students to study.
- D) is easy for all students from the beginning.
- E) focuses only on passing exams.

02. In the sentence "they train outdoors", the word "they" refers to:

- A) cadets.
- B) rooms.
- C) classes.
